REILLY DISMISSED AS HEAD OF HAUPTMANN DEFENSE

NEW YORK, April 4.—Mrs. Bruno Richard Hauptmann today said she had dismissed Edward J. Reilly as head of the counsel which had unsuccessfully defended her husband in his trial for the kidnapping and murder of the son of Colonel Charles A.
Lindbergh.

She dismissed Reilly, she said, because he had presented a bill for $25,000 which she regarded as "exorbitant and prematurely presented."

Discharge of Reilly, she said, au-tomatically raises C. Lloyd Fisher, of Flemington, N. J., to the head of the defense counsel. She said she notified Reilly of his dismissal in a registered letter.

Others remaining in the defense are Frederick A. Pope, of Somerville, N. J., and Egbert Rosecrans, of Blairtown, N. J.

58 CRIMES ARE LISTED IN STRICT NEW LIQUOR LAW

HEAVY PENALTIES PROVIDED FOR VIOLATIONS OF NEW STATE CODE

PASSED BY LAST LEGISLATURE

Jail Sentences Provided for Sale to Habitual Drunkards—Road
Houses Abolished

INDIANAPOLIS, April 4.—Fifty-eight crimes are listed under the new Indiana alcoholic beverage act, ranging from sale of intoxicants on Sunday to refilling of a bottle or container illegally.

The act, which eliminates the ten beer importers, established in 1933, prohibits sale of beer, wines or whisky outside the corporate limits of cities and towns except at established clubs, and resort hotels, and abolishes roadhouses and country night clubs, became effective last month.

Public intoxication is one of the crimes set out in the law. Punishment is fixed at from $1 to $100 fine, to which may be added imprisonment of not more than six months. Any person becoming intoxicated in a railway passenger coach, interurban or traction car, street railway or other common carrier also will be subject to a fine of $10 to $100 or imprisonment of not to exceed 90 days, or both, if convicted.

The law is almost as strict as it was during the days of state and federal prohibition regarding the carrying of liquor into a restaurant or place of entertainment, for personal consumption or for the purpose of giving it away. Violators are subject to a fine of from $20 to $100, and on second conviction the fine is fixed at $50 to $100, to which may be added imprisonment for ten days.

It is equally illegal for a person to carry his own liquor into a place selling alcoholic beverages and to consume it there. Such violation of the law is declared to be a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of from $1 to $25, to which may be added a jail sentence of from five to 15 days.

"Set-ups," "chasers," ginger ale or charged water cannot be sold to such persons legally by restaurant or other liquor license holders.

Fine and imprisonment are provided for the minor boy or girl who misrepresents his or her age to obtain alcoholic drinks through legal channels. A fine of not to exceed $50, and imprisonment of not more than 30 days, or both, are fixed as punishment for violators.

Whisky bottles must be broken after their original contents have been used or transferred, under penalty of a fine of from $25 to $300, to which may be added up to 60 days jail imprisonment.

Other crimes on the list include the sale of adulterated or misbranded beverages, alteration of labels, forging of tax stamps, evasion of tax, advertising of the alcoholic content of beverages, and selling to minors.

Sales of alcoholic drinks are prohibited to persons under 21 years old or to persons known to be habitual drunkards. Punishment upon conviction is fixed at from $20 to $50 fine, to which may be added ten days' imprisonment.

Glenn Voliva, who many times has predicted the end of the world, today

FORMER FIANCE PAYS VISIT TO PRINCESS

RENO, Nev., April 4.—Princess Barbara Hutton Mdivani and James Blakeley, to whom she once was engaged, are believed to have met here yesterday but whether they talked of things romantic was another of the big question marks punctuating the residence here of the divorce-bound Woolworth heiress.

From Blakeley, 25 year old New York socialite who turned to Holly-eastern society whirl, came the statement that as an "old friend" he was in Reno "just to say hello."

AUSTRIA TO REARM; MOVE NO SURPRISE

WILL DEMAND CANCELLATION OF TREATY RESTRICTIONS
AT CONFERENCE

TO SEND ENVOY TO STRESSA

Austrian Action Although Not Unexpected Came Suddenly Wednesday Night

VIENNA, April 4. (UP)—Austria will send an envoy to the allied conference at Stressa to demand cancellation of treaty restrictions on its army, it was said authoritatively today.

Austria's assertion of its right to rearm opened the way for the scrapping of military restrictions in all world war treaties.

Hungary and Bulgaria were expected next to demand that their treaty limited forces be increased.
Turkey, the remaining nation whose forces were restricted, never has pretended to restrict them.

It was said in official quarters today that Austria will demand an army of from 60,000 to 65,000 of whom 30,000 would be selected conscripts.

The army is limited under the St.
German treaty to 20,000 who must be regulars on long-term enlistments.
Conscription is forbidden.

It was assumed that if conscripts were put in the army they would be drawn from the heimwehr and the Catholic storm troops, the two unofficial fascist armies who support the government. Selective conscription is necessary to keep out of the army nazis, socialists and communists.

The cabinet, it was learned, believes it is certain to get permission to rearm.

Its gesture of last night, in which it "presumed" it had the necessary permission to rearm, was one of principle largely. The army has been kept well below treaty strength in point of regulars and money is lacking for a big army.

The situation as regards Hungary and Bulgaria is different. Any defiance of treaties by them would be calculated to rouse the Little Entente nations of Roumania, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia and lead them to demand that the big powers find a solution of the arms crisis that will give them security.

With Hungary and Bulgaria rearmament would be a matter of fact.
There has been speculation as to their probable course ever since Germany passed its compulsory army service law March 16.

last night, but it surprised no one.

GRAND JURY INDICTS FOUR FOR RESTRICTING BIDDING

COVINGTON, Ind., April 4.—Four men were arrested here late yesterday on grand jury indictments charging them with restricting competition in bidding on Fountain county highway projects.

Hallett, former county commissioner whose term of office expired Jan. 1; William P. Willett and Charles Mc-Cauley, now serving as county commissioners, and Harry Eugene Bodine, a materials salesman.

They are alleged to have drawn up cern. The alleged favoritism is reported to have resulted in award of contracts amounting to several thousand dollars to the concern.

The four indicted are all Fountain county residents. They provided bond

WIFE, NEAR DEATH, ACCUSED OF TORTURING HUSBAND

KANSAS CITY, April 4.—Mrs. Nellie A. Hurd lay near death in a hospital here today as police investigated the weird story of her husband, Herbert, 77 year old railway crossing watchman, that he shot her as she tortured him in an effort to locate "hidden wealth" he never possessed. While doctors in General hospital performed an operation to remove four bullets he admitted firing into her body, Hurd dramatically tore off his clothing in jail to disclose many stab wounds, burns bruises and marks which detectives said were made by wire.

All these, said Hurd, were inflicted by his wife as he lay sick "because spirits told her I had a hidden fortune I was giving to the woman next door."

Mrs. Hurd, the former Nellie MacNamara of Helena, Mont., was not expected to recover.

Hurd repudiated flatly a "confession" of infidelity found in the home after Mrs. Hurd was shot today, charging it was obtained "while she was standing with a gun at my head."

Confronted by police with his 44-year old adopted daughter, Nellie A. Hurd, the aged man denounced her as an aid to the tortures, said city detectives.

"You two were trying to get those houses I've staved all my life for," he shouted, pointing a finger at her. "When she had me sick and abed and was burning me with matches you were the one who brought them to her. When she wanted to stab me with that dagger, you brought it to her."

Miss Hurd, who denied his charges, was at police headquarters to make a statement. She was not held.

Miss Hurd signed as a witness a bizarre "confession" Hurd made to his wife Sunday night in which he "admitted" he gave a neighbor woman $15,000 as the price of silence for a series of indiscretions which were also "confessed."

He had never, in his entire life, had $15,000, Hurd told city detectives.

The motherly appearing neighbor of the Hurd mentioned in the "confession" called its statements ridiculous and said Mrs. Hurd was a neighborhood trouble-maker who had once been placed under a peace bond by other offended neighbors.

WASH OUT
15 MILES OF KIDNEY TUBESWin Back Pep . . . Vigor . . . Vim Medical authorities agree that your kidneys contain 15 MILES of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy.If you have trouble with too frequent bladder passages with scanty amount causing burning and discomfort, the 15 MILES of kidney tubes need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swollen feet and ankles, rheumatic pains and dizziness.If kidneys don't empty 2 pints a day and get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your body will take up these poisons causing serious trouble. Don't wait. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS . . . an old prescription . . . which has been used successfully by millions of kidney sufferers for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help to wash out the 15 MILES of kidney tubes. Get DOAN'S PILLS at your druggist. © 1934, Foster-Milburn Co.

N. Y. CITY FATHERS LEARN RE-LIEF CASH HAS STRANGE USESNEW YORK, April 4 — A visibly impressed aldermanic committee learned today that part of the $20-000,000 which the city spends each month on unemployment relief is used to pay for lessons in ballet technique, hobby guidance and "boon dogging.""Boon-doggling" turned out to be the science of weaving ropes, making bents, sleeping bags, belts, and other pioneering necessities.Th committee, whose investigations of relief expenditures already has uncovered such projects as a canvass of housewives to determine the frequency of chicken dinners and a study of the geographical distribution of ancient safety pins, was told approximately $3,000,000 a year is spent for dancing instruction and recreational activities.Prim, plump and serious was Miss Myra Jane Wilcoxon as she told about the eurythmic dancing classes held under her supervision. She said she received $30 a week and the fourteen teachers $24 each.The classes were for both men and women, she said. The pupils would assemble in bathing suits, shorts, or "anything loose" and go through a series of knee-bending, back-bending and diaphragm exercises to the tune of clashing cymbals and beating drums.Miss Wilcoxon, born in Muncie, Ind., came from Michigan City, Ind., where she conducted a dancing school in 1911.

CULBERTSONS PILE UP LEAD

NEW YORK, April 4—A challenge from the "four aces," deadliest rivals of Hal Sims and Ely Culbertson, was issued at Crockford's club last night as the Culbertsons increased their lead to 12,220 points in the 150 rubber match with the Simses.The four aces, Michael T. Gottlieb, David Burnstine, Howard Schenken and Oswald Jacoby, issued a direct challenge to the marathon bridge event contenders for a team match of 300 boards, spotting them 5,000 points, for a stake of $10,000.The aces have established the leading tournament record in the United States during the last two years.
Their challenge found no immediate takers.In the six rubbers played yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson added 880 points to their 11,340 point lead.

UTILITY SUES MAYOR BANGS

HUNTINGTON, Ind., April 4
—The Northern Indiana Power Co. yesterday filed an $800 suit on account against Mayor Clare Bangs for electricity allegedly furnished the Huntington News, published by the mayor.Mayor Bang's feud with the power company dates to Feb. 4, 1933, when service was discontinued to his plant.
He backed a truck up to his press and printed his paper with an improvised dynamo until other facilities could be provided.

Three more business houses were connected to the city plant yesterday, with police protection. Another city electric line is being extended toward the mayor's newspaper plant.ABDUCTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL GIRL ADJUDGED INSANELAPORTE, Ind., April 4, (UP) — Adjudged insane in LaPorte circuit court, Russell A. Knickelheim, 23, ab-ductor of a 17-year old South Bend high school girl, was in the hospital for the criminal insane at the state prison today.Knickelheim was arrested at Do-wagiac, Mich., after he had kidnaped Dorothea Emmons and held her captive in a stolen automobile about 12 hours.He still faces prosecution on the auto theft charge if found sane later.

Conviction would carry a life sentence under the habitual criminal law.Two physicians testified the youth was mentally unbalanced. Deputy Sheriff Taylor Ray related attempts of the prisoner to attack a jailer and commit suicide.

IN VINCENNES LABOR RIOTVINCENNES, Ind., April 4, (UP) —A special policeman was injured rested last night when rioting broke out at the Vincennes Packing Company. The plant has been closed a month because of labor troubles.

The policeman, James Carr, suffered a brain concussion. He was beaten with a club after chasing a man caught hurling stones through plant windows.
